

Domaine Gros Freres et Soeurs

Mar/Apr 04

By Stephen Tanzer

2001 Domaine Gros Frere et Soeur Vosne Romanee

88

($50) Medium red. Rather full-blown, roasted aromas of raspberry, smoked meat, earth and underbrush; already sweet and expressive. Nicely concentrated, penetrating flavors of black raspberry, strawberry and mulch, perked up by some unabsorbed CO2. Finishes fresh and persistent, with a slight dry edge.

2001 Domaine Gros Frere et Soeur Clos Vougeot "Musigni"

91

($100) Medium-deep red. Black raspberry, cherry cola, truffle, smoke and underbrush on the nose; a real blast of Burgundian earth. Concentrated, dense and sappy, with liqueur-like notes of raspberry and cherry, complemented by cola, herbal and roasted oak tones. Long finish features big but sweet tannins. Not at all an austere style of Clos Vougeot; in fact, this is delicious already, if without quite the urgency of the Richebourg.

2001 Domaine Gros Frere et Soeur Richebourg

92

($280) Good full red. Superripe but sappy aromas of red cherry, sassafras and bitter chocolate. Penetrating and highly aromatic in the mouth, with raspberry, spice, mineral and floral flavors. At once dense and pretty, finishing with firm-edged tannins, lively acidity and an explosion of sappy red fruits and minerals. (A Patrick Lesec Selection; importers include Classic Wine Imports, Boston, MA; Fine Vines, Maywood, IL; and The Wine Warehouse, Los Angeles, CA)